

THE NATIONAL CENTER ON ELDER ABUSE

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

WHY WE'RE HERE

To ensure that older Americans live with dignity and honor and free from abuse, neglect, and exploitation.

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL CENTER ON ELDER ABUSE (NCEA)?

- A national resource center dedicated to the prevention of elder mistreatment
- Established by the Administration for Community Living (ACL) in 1988
- Granted a permanent home at ACL in the 1992 amendments to Title II of the Older Americans Act

The NCEA disseminates information and provides technical assistance and training by:

- Making news and resources available
- Collaborating on and disseminating research
- Providing training
- Identifying information about promising practices and interventions
- Operating a listserv
- Providing subject matter expertise

OUR GOAL STATEMENT

To improve the national response to elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation by gathering, housing, disseminating, and stimulating innovative, validated methods of practice, education, research, and policy.

CORE TARGETS

- Serve as a national authority on elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation
- Develop and employ a communications strategy
 - listserv for professionals
 - respond to requests from the lay public and professionals
 - create and disseminate information materials
- Develop and maintain an information clearinghouse on all programs showing promise of success
