6.1 Approval of the Minutes: May 6, 2025

Jakob / Delaram move to approve, no objection Jakob, Delaram, Charlene, Emily, Tommy

6.2 [ADMINISTRATIVE] Goal Setting. Discussion regarding potential bylaw amendments this calendar year.

Jakob: Bring forth election bylaw amendments again to hopefully increase turnout.

Tommy: In person voting is the best way to get people to vote. Lobby to allow for in person voting again. The council itself could pay for voting.

Delaram: Build a coalition to bring in person voting back with neighboring councils. That might be a stronger influence on the city. Increase stakeholder participation and awareness about our community council and this committee.

Tommy: WRAC could take up the in person voting issue too.

Charlene: Also suggesting WRAC as a path forward. We are not the only neighborhood council that struggled with engagement. Who are we really representing?

Tommy: You have to go all the way with one or the other. It has to be either all in person or all vbm. It is too confusing right now.

Delaram: This election should be aligned with other elections so we don't have to pay out of our budget to advertise about the election. Why can they not be on the regular ballot for a primary or general election.

Jakob: Potential redistricting. Talk with a city clerk representative about options for voting and registration, maybe as guest speaker. More specific requirements about using the project completion report form for NPGs. Review committee structure. Maybe elections and bylaws should be an ad hoc committee like in other councils.

Charlene: Do we want to increase quorum to majority instead of half?

7. STANDARD ORDER OF BUSINESS - OLD
