

LA FAMILY HOUSING

about us

LA Family Housing (LAFH) helps people transition out of homelessness and poverty through a continuum of housing enriched with supportive services.

Since 1983, LAFH has become one of the largest comprehensive real estate developer and homeless service provider agencies in Los Angeles and a regional leader providing solutions to end homelessness. In 2016, LAFH helped 7,063 individuals in the fight against homelessness and poverty. We meet clients where they are and design our supportive services to accommodate their specific needs.

our model works

We know what works to end homelessness in people's lives.

Our success is based on a model of an individualized approach to meet each program participant's unique needs. This model connects participants to permanent housing and helps them achieve long-term housing stability through a full continuum of services.
